

PROFILE

Liliane Tannoury

Senior TV producer and presenter

BIOGRAPHY

Liliane Tannoury is a Lebanese senior TV producer and presenter, former volleyball coach and referee currently working in Al Arabiya TV in Dubai. She is best known for her presenting roles with Al Arabiya tv, mainly focusing on sports programs. Liliane, brothers and sisters were raised, in the early years in Zahle / Lebanon and then moved to Sao Paulo / Brazil where she finished her higher studies in communication. She has also Brazilian nationality. In 2003 she moved to Dubai / UAE where she lives.

EDUCATION

Liliane made her first studies in Lebanon and finished in Brazil where she got a degree in communications sciences. This alternation of locations provided to her a very comprehensive cultures differences and the ability to learn various languages.

Liliane speak fluently Arabic, English, French and Portuguese.

CAREER

Liliane began her TV media career as a general reporter on a local Brazilian media institute.

The transition to broadcast journalism was made in 2003 when she joined Al Arabiya TV / Dubai as a sports presenter.

She was an instant hit with viewers, who related well to her pleasant, charming demeanor and her surprisingly journalistic style. In fact, Liliane became a popular figure in television journalism and she has become a regular on sporting shows winning an army of fans.

Liliane Tannoury

www.liliane-tannoury.com

One of the most prominent television journalists in the Gulf

Liliane is currently Senior producer and presenter of sports news and host of different sports programs making her the first woman in the Arabic world to present these types of programs. In addition, she has covered most of the sports tournaments and events around the world. Her comfortable on-screen rapport proved key to the show's growing popularity.

Liliane has conducted numerous exclusive sports interviews all over the world for Al Arabiya, including Cristiano Ronaldo, Jose Mourinho, Zlatan Ibrahimović, Wayne Rooney, Sergio Aguero, Gareth Bale, Gerard Pique, Xavi Hernandez, Antoine Griezmann, Luis Suarez, Iniesta, and many others.

Due to the popularity that she earned performing important interviews, mainly in Europe, Liliane has already been invited several times to integrate others television projects.

Today, Liliane is one of broadcast journalists most prominent and successful female presences in the Gulf recognized for her high professionalism, dedication, competence and the privileged contacts she maintains in Europe. She also often invited, as a guest, to Sports Tonight Show at Dubai Eye Radio station.

PERSONAL LIFE

Liliane currently lives in Dubai with her family. She is often invited to conferences linked to media, sports events presentations, social live local events and she is regular commentator and panelist at Dubai Eye radio sports shows. She enjoy playing sports and practice regularly diving and sky diving. She also like Salsa dance, power yoga and Zumba.

AWARDS AND NOMINATIONS

Liliane was nominated several times for Television Sports Awards and she is an ever-present personality in Al Arabiya TV spots promotions.

CHARITY

Liliane is a very attentive woman to the social problems and regularly supports charities institutions mainly related to her birth country (Lebanon).

