

Hello, I am Liliane Tannoury and this is a short summary paper of my website.

I was born and raised in Lebanon, where I had a happy childhood with my whole family. My adolescence was very happy. I was always a good student in school, and I practiced sport regularly. I focused on basketball and volleyball, and I became a champion in the latter.

Journalism has always captivated me. I started by writing in some newspapers in my hometown and I later graduated from the Collège Saint Joseph (Zahle, Lebanon) on this specialty.

In 2003 I received an invitation to come to Dubai and work in Al Arabiya TV. I am currently still working there and I am very happy. Presently I am a senior sports presenter and producer.

Now I am presenting the sports daily bulletins, and still do exclusive interviews with top football players. In recent times, I was focused on the football Spanish and English League. Recently I have interviewed great players like Cristiano Ronaldo, Luis Suarez, Joe Hart, Diego Costa, Gereth Bale, and many others.

I have many plans for the future. I am ambitious and soon there will be news in my career!

I am always in a good mood, well with life, and I care about others.

In my free time, I like to practice scuba diving and sky diving. I also like Salsa dance, zumba and power yoga.

I love to travel and I am always trying to learn new languages.

MY PRESS

Liliane Tannoury

My career so far has been quite long, and with different and exciting experiences. From Lebanon to Dubai, also going through Brazil, everything allowed me to learn from different journalistic experiences. Please check out my Profile here!

BIOGRAPHY

I am a Lebanese senior TV producer, presenter and a former volleyball coach, trainer and referee currently working in Al Arabiya TV in Dubai. I am best known for my presenting roles with Al Arabiya tv, mainly focusing on sports programs. Me, my brothers and sisters were raised, in the early years in Zahle / Lebanon and then we moved to Sao Paulo / Brazil where I finished my higher studies in communication. In 2003 I moved to Dubai / UAE where I live.

CAREER

I began my TV media career as a general reporter on a local Brazilian media institute.

The transition to broadcast journalism was made in 2003 when I joined Al Arabiya TV / Dubai as a sports presenter where I became a popular figure in television sports journalism. I am currently the co-anchor of sports news and normally I cover the most important sports tournaments and events around the world.

I have conducted numerous exclusive sports interviews all over the world for Al Arabiya, including Cristiano Ronaldo Robin Van Persie, Gareth Bale, Gerard Pique, Xavi Hernandez, Luis Suarez, Iniesta, Javi Alonso and many others.

EDUCATION

I made my first studies in Lebanon and finished in Brazil where I studied communications sciences. This alternation of locations provided me a very comprehensive cultures differences and the ability to learn various languages.

I speak fluently Arabic, English, French and Portuguese.

Due to the popularity that I earned performing important interviews, mainly in Europe, I have already been invited several times to integrate others television projects.

Today, I am one of broadcast journalists most prominent and successful female presences in the Gulf recognized for my high professionalism, dedication and competence.
